E-Newsletter: Information & Activities to keep their "little lights" shining

Trailblazing Little Dreamers!

I can't believe I finished my first week teaching online Character Art to over 23 little Picassos. We even had a 9-year-old attend! Initially, I was a bit nervous because I'd never taught art to anyone before, let alone kids. I also learned so much from each little dreamer who became trailblazers along with me. Over 21% of the kids returned for a second class! It was great to see their artwork at the end of each session and to receive 5-star reviews from their parents.

Got a 4-8-year-old who likes to draw and wants to blaze a few trails? Try out a session. This week, we're creating art with number 2, letter B, and a rectangle. Click to see the intro video and enroll here. Hope to see your dreamer in class!

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"Trail blazing is an art-form.
It is how we find paths through what before was wilderness."

— Lucy H. Pearce

Word: Trailblazer

What does trailblazer mean?

- A person who does something before anyone else.
- Pioneer. Innovator. Pathmaker. Leader.

Reflect on the quote and meaning. How will you show your trailblazing skills this week?

Parents: Help your child learn the meaning of trailblazer. Engage them in a conversation and activity about it.

5★Reviews!!

Sterling was an enthusiastic and effective teacher. My oldest who is 9 even loved it and said he wants to take another class with Sterling. Kids who like art or even who may kinda like it but are intimidated by it would benefit from this class.

ACTIVITY SHEET

LITTLE DREAMER'S FIRST NAME: _____

Write the word for this week: _____

Reflect on the quote and word. Draw a picture using your imagination.

A large, empty rectangular box with an orange border, intended for a child to draw a picture. In the bottom right corner of this box, there is a small illustration of two crayons, one orange and one blue.

Write a short sentence (caption) about the picture.
