LITTLE DREAMERS PREP FOR HALLOWEEN!

Don't get spooked! Halloween is around the corner! Are you prepared? Tricks, treats, and wearing their new costume is what's brewing in the minds of kids this month. Whatever you're planning to do, be sure to include activities leading up to the big day. Don't have anything in mind? We've got your little dreamer covered. Next week through October 30th, we've prepared daily art classes with a Halloween theme: ghosts, creepy (but cute) creatures, and more! Prepare to have an enjoyable, virtual time being creative with other little dreamers.

Got a 4-8-year-old? Have them draw on page 3. Or sign them up! This week, we'll create art using characters 6, F, and a shape. See the intro video and enroll here.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"One important key to success is self-confidence. An important key to self-confidence is...preparation."

— Arthur Ashe

Word: Prepared

What does prepared mean?

- To be ready to do something.
- Equipped. Practiced. Willing. All set.

Reflect on the quote and meaning. How will you show you're prepared this week?

Parents: Help your child learn the meaning of preparation. Engage in a conversation and activity about it on page 3.

Come prepared to draw with us!

A Parent's Feedback

5★Reviews!!

Mr. Sterling was wonderful with my 5 year old. He introduced what they were doing, gave step by step directions, and made sure she followed along. My daughter talked his ear off but he was super patient and followed along...She was super proud of what she did and can't wait to take another class... – Selina
